- Sufficient time (~3 hours) to prepare, review, and submit before closing
- Review all instructions on announcement, PMF website, and FAQs
- Check PMF website for any news or updates

Preparing for Application

General tips for applicants when preparing to apply:

- Read the announcement and the “Become a PMF” section on the PMF website
  - Avoid relying on third-party information as these are often inaccurate
- Assemble application documents, especially the transcript (and/or alternative)
- Avoid applying late; application can take 2-3 hours to complete
- Add the following email addresses to “safe list”: pmf@opm.gov and pmfapplication@opm.gov; some school servers may block email delivery
- Applicants (including Semi-Finalists, Finalists, and Fellows) and academia should use the pmfapplication@opm.gov email address; whereas, Federal agencies and general public should use pmf@opm.gov
- When creating an applicant user account, recommend using a personal email address versus .edu email address
- Follow system and browser requirements for application and on-line assessment

Preparing for Application (continued)

- Resume can be in ANY format, but limited to 3MB in file size
- The PMF TAS (Talent Acquisition System) is used for applicants to apply and only allows one applicant user account to be associated to an email address and Social Security Number
  - Applicants should use previously established user account, if any
  - User names, passwords, and answer to secret question are case-sensitive
- Male applicants will be asked if registered for Selective Service (www.sss.gov)
- Current students completing their advanced degree requirements must complete by August 31st the year after the application before starting a PMF appointment; this includes the successful defense/completion of any required thesis/dissertation
- There is no regulatory provision to waive a requirement or defer
- Applicants are to complete their application, on-line assessment, and essays on their own; no outside assistance is allowed
